

Organize

Seminar

On

Innovation on selection of fascinating projects

For

final year Students

28th Nov - 2016

Importants of Project Selection

Project selection is the first important part of project portfolio management.

The responsibility of the department to guide the students to select fascination project.

The department brings resource person from varies organization to give the guidance's to the students.

The generic process of project selection looks as follows.

