Report: Seminar on Anti-Ragging

Title:SEMINAR ON ANTI-RAGGING

Organized by:

Department of Computer Science and Design

RajaRajeswari College of Engineering, Bengaluru

(An Autonomous Institution under VTU, Approved by AICTE, UGC &GoK)

Introduction

A seminar on Anti-Ragging was organized at RajaRajeswari College of engineering, Dept of Computer Science and Design on 18-08-2025 with the objective of creating awareness among students about the consequences of ragging and the importance of maintaining a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus environment. The seminar aimed to sensitize students about the legal, ethical, and social aspects of ragging and to encourage them to take a stand against such practices.

Objectives

- To create awareness about the ill effects of ragging.
- To educate students about anti-ragging laws, rules, and punishments.
- To promote a culture of mutual respect, equality, and safety.
- To encourage students to act as responsible members of the academic community.

Proceedings of the Seminar

The seminar began with a welcome address, and highlighted the importance of maintaining discipline and harmony on campus.

The keynote speaker, Prof. Malathi V Asst.Prof, delivered an insightful session on:

- The psychological and emotional impact of ragging.
- UGC guidelines and the Supreme Court rulings on ragging.
- Legal consequences, including imprisonment and suspension.
- The role of students in preventing and reporting ragging cases.

The seminar also included interactive sessions where students actively participated, asked questions, and shared their opinions on how to make the campus ragging-free. Short videos and case studies were presented to give real-life insights into the seriousness of ragging incidents.

Outcome

The seminar was highly informative and created a strong sense of awareness among the students. The participants pledged to stand against ragging and promote a culture of friendship and support. The session motivated students to become ambassadors of anti-ragging initiatives in the institution.

Conclusion

The seminar on Anti-Ragging successfully achieved its objectives by spreading awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and the need for collective efforts to eliminate it. It emphasized the importance of building a safe, inclusive, and supportive educational environment where every student feels respected and valued.
