

CRITERIA – 6.1

AY 2024-25

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The institution practices an efficient decentralized administration that has complete transparency in all the processes. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) is headed by the Principal and faculty as committee members as per the composition and guidelines as given by the NAAC.

Under the supervision and guidance of the Principal, Heads of Departments are empowered, and the departments are granted academic autonomy, which is a concrete step towards the establishment of an effective decentralized governance system.

The various duties, responsibilities, and activities are required for the smooth operation of the institution are decentralized into different committees, each of which has headed by the senior Professors and members such as faculty members, student coordinators, parent representatives, industrial representatives, etc, and each of these committees is monitored by the Institutional Quality Assurance Committee (IQAC) at both the Institutional and Departmental levels.

The Principal of the institution conducts weekly meetings with the Heads of the Departments to analyze, implement the strategic policies, review the academic activities performed, to fulfill the needs of the students, to improve the quality of the technical education and execution.

The management and the institution regularly obtained feedback and valuable suggestions from the Principal, faculty members, and staff members.
